

Year 4 Doves

RE

Autumn 1

How special is the relationship Jews have with God?

Abraham was considered to be the founder of the Jewish religion. He had a very strong relationship with God and was faithful to God's instructions, even when it was a great cost to him.

Key Vocabulary	Definition
Abraham	The founder of the Jewish religion.
Agreement	Something that is promised between people.
Isaac	Abraham's son.
Jews	People who follow the religion of Judaism.
Mezuzah	An item placed by the front door of every Jewish home.
Moses	A prophet from the Old Testament, who received the 10 commandments from God.
Synagogue	Place of Worship for Jewish people.
Tallit	A white shawl with fringed corners worn over the head and shoulders by Jewish males during religious services.
Ten Commandments	Ten important rules for Jews that were given to Moses by God.
Torah	Jewish Holy Book.

Moses was given the 10 commandments from God. These are rules that people had to live by.

Jewish People worship God in a Synagogue.

A tallit is a white shawl worn by men while praying.

A Mezuzah is on the front doors of Jewish homes. It is touched every time the house is entered. It contains a special prayer.

