

Year One Wrens

English

Autumn 1

Cave Baby

Leo and the

Octopus

Suffixes

A suffix is a group of letters which go on the end of a word to create a new meaning. The suffixes we will be focusing on are s/es, ing, ed, er and est:

help—helps

run—running

join—joined

loud—louder

fast—fastest

Key Vocabulary

Definition

accident	An unintended action where no one is directly to blame adjectives	An adjective is a word that describes a noun capital letters	Every sentence should start with a capital letter characters	A character is a person or another being from a narrative conjunction	A conjunction is a part of speech that connects words or phrases describe	To give a detailed account in words experience	An event or occurrence which leaves an impression on someone full stops	A punctuation mark used at the end of a sentence narrative	A spoken or written account of connected events, a story naughty	Badly behaved or disobedient prediction	A sensible guess sequence	A particular order in which related things follow each other statements	A definite or clear expression of something in speech and writing

Adjectives

An adjective is a word that describes a noun.

Color
blue
red
green
black orange

Size
big small gigantic
short
tall

Sound
loud
quiet
nice
faint
pleasant

Shape
egg/oval
round
boxy
square triangular

Cave Baby

A hairy mammoth takes a cheeky little baby on a thrilling ride through a moon-lit landscape populated by a sabre-toothed tiger, a leaping hare, a laughing hyena and even, just maybe, by a big brown bear...We find out where they are going and what it has to do with the baby's scribbles on the cave wall.

Leo and the Octopus

Leo and the Octopus is a picture book about difference and understanding. It depicts, Leo, a child on the autism spectrum, and describes how out of place he feels in his world and how important it is for him to find an affinity with someone – or something - else.

Phonics

My Phase 3 Sound Mat

